

Amy's Code of Ethics and Rules

Love, sexuality and intimacy are such fragile subjects that it is necessary to establish a clear framework between you and me so that each one can feel respected and at ease.

In order for you to feel totally secure and reassured, I am extremely attentive to the following points:

- During your first visit, it will be important to notify me of any health problems that could be important for the smooth running of the ritual (recent scars, heart problems, allergies, pregnancy, etc.) All your personal information will of course be kept confidential on the basis of professional secrecy. I also ask you during the following visits to communicate to me of any significant changes (operation, pain, etc.).
- For body therapy, I ask you for an impeccable hygiene. It is necessary to be freshly showered before starting the treatment. If not, you have the possibility to take a shower on site.
- In order to work in a serene atmosphere, reservations are made at least 48 hours in advance, which gives you time for your mental preparation.
- The clients agree that all the rituals solicited remain in the ethics, the courtesy and the respect. I reserve the right to refuse anyone whose intent and / or behavior is inappropriate.
- Tantra Rituals are based on mutual nudity and can be very sensual, but do not involve penetration, oral sex or kissing on the mouth. Tantric philosophy is based on the awakening of the body, mind and chakras or energy centers. Your Lingam or Yoni (male or female sexual organ) and the most sensitive areas are subtly caressed, which gives you unforgettable sensations. Your vital or sexual energy is diffused throughout your body.
- I guarantee you the most absolute professional secrecy and respect strict confidentiality of your private life.
- To ensure you have a moment of total relaxation, I ask you to put your phone on silent during the rite.
- I ask you to respect the time of your meeting. In case of delay, your ritual will be harmoniously shortened in order to respect the schedule of the following clients. If you are unable to come to the appointment, I ask you to contact me by phone at least 24 hours in advance to arrange another date.
- My services are clearly defined, and payment is made before any session.

Each client declares to have read my services and their terms of application and undertakes to comply with this charter. My services are clearly defined, and payment is made before any session.
